Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense

(Production Engineering and Material Acquisition)

Dear Admiral Reich:

Your letter of 18 October 1973 addressed to the Director, Central Intelligence has been referred to me for reply.

As an associated agency of the Department of Defense, the Central Intelligence Agency has utilized the industrial priorities and allocations system in its procurement under a delegation of authority for over twenty years in obtaining timely completion of its procurement programs.

Based upon a review by our procurement staff the Central Intelligence Agency concurs in the proposed revisions to the industrial priorities regulations and orders of the Bureau of Competitive Assessment and Business Policy of the Department of Commerce.

Mr. M. J. Friedman, Directorate for Management Evaluation and Material Control, OASD (I & L) has been notified by telephone that [redacted]

[redacted] Chief, Procurement Management Staff, Office of Logistics is the designated point of contact for questions concerning industrial priorities and allocations.

Very truly yours,
